NATIONAL INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY, KURUKSHETRA
DEPARTMENT OF HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES
END TERM EXAMINATION NOV./DEC. 2025

(B.Tech 1st Year, 1st Semester)

Subject: Communication Skills in English
Subject Code: HSIC 101

Maximum Marks: 50
Time: 03 Hours

Q1	Elaborate upon the process of Communication with a schematic representation clearly listing out all the elements involved in the process. Demonstrate three ways in which the communication process can be made more effective.	5
Q2.	The first impression about people is most often made on the basis of their physical appearance, which significantly affects the quality of communication. Do you agree? Discuss how barriers impact communication skills by examining four different types of them.	5
Q3.	English language for most Indians comes through second language acquisition, what do you think are some of the challenges that young learners face while learning English. Think through LSRW.	5
Q4.	Examine the relationship between non-verbal communication and language. Do you think silence can be as effective as verbal communication? Give some examples from real life.	5
Q5. (i)	Fill in the blanks with the most appropriate context-dependent verb forms. Each answer requires attention to tense sequencing and agreement. By the time the conference finally _____ (begin), half the delegates _____ (already/leave). The panel of experts _____ (debate) the issue for hours, but none of the proposed solutions _____ (seem) convincing. If the organizers _____ (anticipate) the delays, they _____ (arrange) an alternative venue.	3
Q5. (ii)	Rewrite the following five complex sentences using correct subject–verb agreement and verb forms. Retain the meaning and complexity of structure.	3

	a) The rise in unemployment, along with economic uncertainties, have created tension among the citizens. b) Not only the managers but also the CEO were unaware that the reports was manipulated. c) The committee insist that the findings are verified before publication.
Q5. (iii)	Rewrite the passage maintaining meaning but correcting all grammatical errors (agreement, verb forms, punctuation) while also preserving the formal tone. the series of lectures was scheduled to begin last week but none of the speakers has arrive on time therefore the administration were forced to postpone it the delay affected everyone.	4
Q6.	You are Roma/Ravi, the Technical Events Coordinator of your institute. The annual Tech Innovation Summit has been delayed due to the unavailability of key equipment and lab facilities. Write a formal letter to the Dean (Academics) requesting approval for the revised event timeline, permission to use specialized labs after regular hours, and authorization to invite industry experts for workshops. Ensure the letter follows the correct formal format, maintains a professional tone, and clearly justifies the need for the requested changes.	5
Q7.	You are Shyamalan/ Sita, the Lab Coordinator in your institute's Department of Computer Science. Due to recurring hardware failures in the main programming lab, students are unable to complete their practical assignments. Write a professional email to the Head of the Department reporting the issue, requesting an urgent maintenance check, and proposing temporary arrangements to ensure classes are not disrupted. Maintain proper email format, clarity, and formal tone.	5
Q8. (i)	Write the correct IPA symbols for the following consonant	5 sounds and state their place and manner of articulation: 1. ch (as in chair) 2. j (as in jam) 3. sh (as in shoe) 4. th (as in think) 5. ng (as in sing) OR Explain, with factual detail, how phonetics scientifically studies human speech sounds. In your answer, describe the physical processes involved in producing sounds and the role of the speech organs.

Q9.	Write short notes (2–3 sentences each) on the following: 1. Phonetics – Definition and importance in English. 2. Manner of Articulation – How consonant sounds are produced. 3. Place of Articulation – Locations in the vocal tract where sounds are made. 4. Voicing – Difference between voiced and voiceless sounds. 5. Linguistic Inconsistency in English – Reasons for irregular spelling and pronunciation.	5